

Percentage of Residential Parcels with an Existing Housing Structure,
by Census Block

Northend Central Neighborhood, Detroit, Michigan

"Residential Parcel" in this map is defined as a parcel with either a 1-4 unit housing structure or a vacant lot surveyed during the Detroit Residential Parcel Survey (DRPS). The DRPS surveyed predominantly residential parcels. The DRPS also surveyed vacant lots in neighborhood commercial areas adjacent to residential areas.

0 0.25 0.5 1 Miles

Sources: Detroit Residential Parcel Survey;
Data Driven Detroit. 3/5/2010

Pct. of Res. Parcels with Existing Hsg. Structure

Blocks Excluded (No Parcels Surveyed)

Quintiles based on citywide data

0% - 43.55% (Quintile with Lowest Pct. Structures)

43.56% - 72.73%

72.74% - 90.48%

90.49% - 99.25%

99.26% - 100% (Quintile with Highest Pct. Structures)

Skillman Good Neighborhoods, Northend Central Detroit, Michigan

