Be Counted!

The law forbids the Census Bureau from sharing Census data with any other agency until 72 years after the data is collected!

Data is collected in an offline database and is no longer accessible online once it’s received!