Note: Households spending 30% or more of income on housing costs are considered to be experiencing a housing burden.